DR. J. ALBOHM WILL SPEAK AT DEDICATION OF GRADE SCHOOL

Dr. John Albohm, superintendent of the York city schools, will be the speaker for the dedication of the new Eisenhower Elementary School here which went into use September 1. The dedication ceremonies will be held at 7:30 o'clock on Friday evening, October 16.

President Eisenhower has been invited to attend the dedication.

The report on the principal speaker was made to members of the Gettysburg Joint School Board Monday evening at their September meeting at the high school building.

A considerable part of the board's three-hour session Monday evening was taken up with problems encountered in the remodeling of the Meade building to meet state Department of Labor and Industry requirements. As the work has progressed in the last few weeks, new complications have developed and the board confirmed a special meeting decision of the joint school committee to place new electrical wiring in the building.

Lines Too Small

Waste lines from relocated rest rooms are four inches in diameter and it was discovered last week that only three-inch terra cotta pipes are under the basement floor to carry the lines to the sewer system. The board approved digging up basement floors to lay new lines and will decide later whether much of the 1½-inch concrete floor in the basement will be replaced. That decision will come when cost estimates are available.

The board also approved replacing of front and side doors to the building, relocating the gas meter and line, supplying new supporting beams in a section of the building and enclosing the boiler room with masonry.

Another decision awaiting cost estimates will be on re-pointing exterior brick walls and stone foundations described as badly in need of such attention at a number

MINISTERIUM BACKS LIBRARY ON TAX PLAN

The Adams County Ministerium at its September meeting Monday in the Presbyterian Church here adopted a resolution endorsing the tax-support plan for the Adams County Free Library. The library association has petitioned to have a one-mill tax referendum placed on the ballot in November.

The county churchmen met at the main library on E. High St. Monday morning where Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, the librarian, reviewed the history and the services of the county library and took them on a tour of the library property.

The Rev. W. R. Sammel explained the tax support plan and said it will give the library funds to meet its basic needs and will make some future growth possible. After the library tour, the ministers went to the Presbyterian Church for their business meeting with their president, Dr. Paul L. Reaser, presiding.

Disturbing Influences

There were reports from committees and the Rev. Manuel Rodriguez told of his work among migrant laborers in the county as the representative of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches. The pastors learned of "some disturbing influences" being encountered in the migrant work but commended the young minister for his "fine program" and assured him of their continued interest in his work.

The ministerium is making arrangements for the annual Reformation Day service to be held Sunday, October 25. Details will be announced later.

After the general meeting, ministerial officers lunched at the Lamp Post tea room.

The ministerium meets next in October.

planned. It was learned after architects' plans had been drawn that the north line of the Rice property was not at right angles to the street. The board and architect felt that to change the plan would produce a less satisfactory room arrangement so negotiations were begun to buy the small part of the Yoder lot.

Yoder's decision to donate the land to the board is a reversal of a decision previously reported to the board.

The board discussed transportation problems and approved the addition of two bus runs to handle the increased pupil load. Two of the present buses will make additional trips.

It was also reported to the board that the Department of Labor and Industry has extended to September 1, 1960, the time limit for changes in the junior high school building. The changes were ordered by the state following a fire safety inspection made some months ago.

Rowe Martin, president of the board, conducted the meeting.

WIFE NEED NOT

In another desertion and nonsupport case, brought against Paul E. Cooley, York, a bartender here, by his wife, Mrs. Helen E. Cooley, the court ruled that a husband does not have to live in the same house with "his wife's gentleman friend." The case against Cooley was dismissed and the costs were placed on Mrs. Cooley when Mrs. Cooley admitted that a man, described by question attorneys as her "boy friend" and "gentleman friend," was in the home.

Daniel L. Baker, 506 S. Queen St., Littlestown was directed to pay $1 per week for the support of his wife by agreement following a nonsupport hearing before the court.

Other Decisions

The couple indicated that conditions which led to their separation in Littlestown are being resolved by Mrs. Baker's moving to Harrisburg and that the couple anticipates reunion there in the near future.

Emory E. Heiner, East Berlin R. 1, was directed to pay $25 per week for the support of his wife, Roseline Heiner, keep up the payments of the mortgage, insurance and taxes on their jointly-owned property, pay the costs of the case and enter into his own bond for $500.

Cleveland Knocks Off Yankees While Boston Upsets League Leaders

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Strange how one victory can make a man adjust his point of view.

Sunday after his Cleveland Indians had been beaten twice in Yankee Stadium and Chicago had won to boost its first-place margin to 5½ games, manager Joe Gordon greeted reporters: "Come in and join the wake."

Monday after his Indians had knocked off the Yankees 8-5 while Boston was upending the White Sox 9-3, the same man said: "I'm not ready to concede. We've still got a chance."

Chance is slim

The chance is slim, but it's there. Take a look.

Chicago has nine games left to play to Cleveland's 10. If the White Sox win six, it's all over, even if the Indians win all theirs. In other words, any combination of six will lift the White Sox to their first pennant in 40 years.

But here's the rub. All of Chicago's nine remaining games are against first division clubs — two against New York, six against Detroit and one against Cleveland. On the other hand, only one of the Indians' remaining 10 games are against a first division club. The Indians have seven against Kansas City and two against Boston.

Senators Blank Tigers

In other American League games Washington blanked Detroit 5-0 and Baltimore whipped Kansas City 9-4.

Dick Donovan, seeking for the third time to post his 10th victory, carried a 2-lead into the sixth when the roof caved in. Before the Red Sox were through, 12 batters had gone to the plate and collected four hits, five walks and six runs off four Chicago pitchers.

Frank Malzone hit a two-run single, Ted Williams singled in a run as a pinch hitter and Gene Stephens also singled in a run. That was enough for Bill Monbouquette to register his seventh victory in a route-going job.

McLish Beats Yanks

Cal McLish beat the Yankees for the sixth time this season. The big right-hander had a shutout until the ninth when the Yankees pounded five runs across. It was too late by then because McLish himself had driven in three Cleveland runs with a triple and single, and rookie Ray Webster had knocked in three mates with a double and two singles.

Jim Lemon, on a hot streak, cracked his 32nd home run for Washington, four in the last five games, as Truman Clevenger, normally a relief pitcher, stopped the Tigers with four hits.

Bob Nieman walloped a three-run homer as Baltimore ruined rookie Al Grunwald's starting debut for Kansas City. Hector Brown notched his 10th success.

Eastern League Final Playoffs (Best of 5) Springfield 5 Williamsport 2 (Springfield leads series 2-1)

LOPEZ TO REST SOX STARS IF CHANCE COMES

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Cautious Al Lopez, as close-mouthed as ever about winning the American League pennant, at least concedes he's making plans about what he's going to do if his White Sox take it.

"Rest," the White Sox manager said Sunday. "That's what I'm going to do. Just rest."

"Now don't go saying I said we've got it won. Not at all. That's just what I'm going to do if we win it in time to do any good before the series."

Sox Pad Lead

The White Sox hustled out to a 5½ game lead over staggering Cleveland Sunday, and reduced the magic number to 6. That is, any combination of Chicago victories and Cleveland losses totaling 6 will secure the White Sox their first flag in 40 years. Chicago has 10 games remaining and Cleveland has 11.

The White Sox moved out to the margin on the strength of their 3-1 triumph over Boston and Cleveland's loss of a double header to the Yankees.

Lopez was asked after the game if he would rest any players if the White Sox clinch the pennant before the end of the season.

Rest Stars

"I sure will," he replied. "If I rest (Nellie) Fox and (Luis) Aparicio. They've been going pretty hard and can use it. And I'd rest (Jim) Landis, too," he added, before he was informed that Landis will be lost for several days due to an infection on his right leg.

"I'd take a rest too," he continued. "I'd like to just move a bed in the dugout and lay down. Just quit thinking for a while."

In the meantime, he said, the White Sox will continue "just playing them out at a time."

ONLY "TOKEN" ENFORCEMENT ON BLUE LAWS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Only token enforcement was made on the first Sunday under stiffer penalties for violation of the state's 165-year-old Blue Laws.

Across the state only 12 citations for violations were reported.

In Ridley Township, Delaware County, private citizens signed nine informations alleging violations by three persons at two establishments.

Nine citations were issued in Montgomery County where Dist. Atty. Bernard Di Joseph has said he will enforce the Blue Laws "until some sort of legal order is issued to the contrary."

Under Court Text

The constitutionality of the laws is under litigation in federal court. Under the new law, violators face a $100 fine on conviction instead of the old $4 fine.

In general most law enforcement agencies have adopted an attitude of wait and see.

Seven of the informations signed in Ridley Township named the general manager and the store manager of Bargain City. The two others named the operator of an outlet store in the same township.

In Montgomery County, Police Chief Bruce Bailey walked into the Montgomeryville Mart at noon and issued citations to five of the 20 concessions on the premises. The citations directed each to appear at police headquarters tonight for a hearing.

Samuel Brown, the general manager of the mart, said Bailey was polite, chatting with him as he handed out citations whenever he saw a sale being made.

In Norriton Township, Police Chief James Oliver and a patrolman gave citations to four salesmen at Bargain City, USA, a discount house. Oliver said the four were singled out because they were the only ones selling.

No Philadelphia Action

Here is some of the activity that occurred in the state:

Philadelphia — In accordance with the city's announced policy of holding off until a court decision is reached, no one policeman showed up at a large market which conducted trade in a normal manner.

Pittsburgh — Business stayed as usual as 41 retail stores stayed open. They were under protection of a temporary federal injunction and were undisturbed by authorities.

Dauphin County — The Merchandise Mart in Middletown, near Harrisburg, was closed. It had been raided for the last 15 Sundays and 17 persons had been arrested. The Mart has asked U.S. District Court to declare the Blue Laws unconstitutional.

No Arrest Attempts

Lebanon — No attempt was made to arrest anyone when a Bargain-town, USA house opened in Lebanon, as advertised. Dist. Atty. James Whitman said that although

16 LOSE LIVES IN ACCIDENTS OVER WEEKEND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
At least 16 persons died in weekend accidents in Pennsylvania, 11 of them traffic victims.

A schoolgirl died in a fall; another girl perished in a fire; a man was electrocuted; another was run over by a tractor, and a woman was crushed to death against a pillar in a garage.

In the weekend's most tragic accident, three members of one family were killed when their car went out of control and rammed a tree along Route 36 near Tionesta Saturday. Killed were Raymond Matha, 34, his son, Danny, 8, and his brother Delbert, 31.

Joseph C. Shaulis, 31, of Reading, a prisoner en route to Berks County jail on a charge of assault and battery, was killed Sunday when a constable's car overturned after a collision with another auto near Reading.

Falls 20 Feet To Death
Dorothy Collins, 10, fell 20 feet from her death from a school fire escape while playing Sunday in Warren.

Mrs. Erma Brodhead, 54, Palmer Township near Easton, was killed Sunday in the garage accident. She had driven her car into the garage and as she got out she told her daughter, Evelyn, to set the gear shift on park. When the girl did so, the car lurched and the open door on the driver's side pinned Mrs. Brodhead against a pillar.

Other fatal accidents:

SHENANDOAH — Miss Dorothy Barno, 24, of Trenton, Pa., and Joseph Didyoung, 28, of Wiggan, killed Saturday when two cars they were driving smashed head-on on a curve off Route 45.

Protestants Issue Call For Prayers During Visit Of Premier Khrushchev

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Rev. Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, president of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., has issued a call to the churches of America to engage in special prayer during the visit to this country of Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev of the Soviet Socialist Republics.

"As they are in consultation with each other may we all in the secret place of the Most High hold a summit conference with Thee, to end the clouds of suspicion and fear now shadowing life of mankind may be cleared away. Create in the heart of every citizen a disposition to understanding and good will. So transform our human nature in all lands and in all religions that we may become healing personalities rather than the agents of violence and destruction. Put us on guard against falsehood and guile, but make us open-hearted towards even sincere word and action of those who differ from us. Give to us a spirit of self-discipline, so that there may be no untoward incident that shall mar the negotiations between the East and the West, bringing further grief and anguish to a broken world. Overcome by the power of the Holy Spirit all the difficulties of language and interpretation. So guide all translators, reporters, commentators, statesmen, and other molders of public opinion that they may lead us into the truth that shall make us free."

HOUSE MAY BAN JUNKETS WHILE CONGRESS SITS

WASHINGTON (AP) — House leaders may ban junkets next year while Congress is in session.

they may not yield to the temptations of mob vengeance that would complicate still further the tragedies of our time. Deliver us, too, from the treachery of subversive groups that would exploit for their own purposes the hopes of humanity for peace and justice.

By Thy merciful grace cause even those who do not believe in Thee to become the instruments of Thy righteous will. And may those who believe give more than lip service to the spirit of Thine everlasting kingdom.

"Hear our prayer, O God, that all the enmities of nations may come to an end, and Thy true religion increase in the hearts of all men. From all the fall-out of sin and evil deliver us and save us, most gracious Lord. For we pray in the name of the Christ Who bore His heavy cross in the faith that through His redeeming love we might be reconciled to Thee and to one another. Amen."

Junkets are those taxpayer-paid trips abroad so dear to the heart of so many congressmen.

Fewer than half the House members were present for Saturday's session. Many of them have been abroad for some time. Others had gone home for the weekend.

Lacked Quorum

That meant Saturday's session lacked a quorum—the attendance of at least half the members. If one member had objected, the House would have had to adjourn until enough of the wanderers were called back. No one objected, so some routine business was taken care of.

Under consideration is a proposed rule that would bar use of public funds for congressional travel overseas while Congress is in session. Any member going abroad at that time would have to pay his own way.

Absenteeism has been a vital factor several times in recent weeks. Some Democrats believe the first veto of a public works bill could have been overridden if absent members had been on hand.

BARGAIN PRICES FOR NEW CAR BUYERS—The prospective car purchaser can undoubtedly make a better deal at the present time on a new automobile than in the coming months. The reason is that most dealers have a supply of 1959 models that can be purchased at reduced prices. Every make offers satisfactory transportation and undoubtedly the prospect of a car to trade in can get a better deal now than at any time in the future.

Those who are waiting for delivery of any of the small cars to be offered by Ford, Chrysler or General Motors may be disappointed in the allowance any dealer offers for their trade-in. There are two reasons for this—first, none of the factories will be able to produce as many cars for the first six months as they can sell, and second, the discount to dealers on the new compact cars will be three to five per cent less than they now receive on the larger U. S.-built cars. Thus the shorter margin to work with and the lower price of the compact car will prohibit any dealer from making exceptionally high allowances, which before has been customary in the merchandising of large U. S. cars. When there is a shortage of any merchandise, allowances are lower and discounting is less. While none of the U. S.-built compact cars are going to be priced down in the extreme low price range of the most popular imports, many prospective new buyers are anxiously waiting for price announcements—which undoubtedly will prove disappointing.

It is a foregone conclusion that prices on the larger conventional U. S. models will be higher for 1960 models than for the comparable 1959 models.

A CONFIDENT MAN—Most confident man in the United States auto picture is the new boss of Buick, E. D. Rollert. Mr. Rollert has undertaken the man-sized job of pushing Buick again to the sales popularity it enjoyed in the medium priced field for so many years. He feels the new compact car sales will have little effect on sales of medium priced cars.

Asks Police To Find Missing Husband

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Ben F. Stockett Jr., has asked police to search for her husband, president of the Bristol Township, Bucks County, school board.

She told police Saturday that her husband left a note in their home and withdrew $300 from their joint checking account leaving only $2. She said $150 in cash kept in the house also was missing. So was the family automobile.

Mrs. Stockett said her husband took all his clothes. The couple has five children.

Police said the note left by Stockett read:

"I am going away for awhile. Will get in touch with you soon."

SAYS PRIMARY PLACE TO PICK CANDIDATES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) says anyone wanting the presidential nomination should be willing to run in primary elections.

In a television program taped for Pennsylvania stations, Kennedy said Sunday the primaries give some chance for judgment by the voters and "not merely . . . six or seven people in some room."

He conceded that political leaders have some influence in the choice of a nominee, but added: "I would hate to have it finally made a judgment on the basis of a few people meeting in some Los Angeles hotel. I have never thought that was the way candidates ought to be picked." The 1960 Democratic national convention will be in Los Angeles.

"Front-runner"

Kennedy is considered front-runner for his party's nomination, but has not announced formally. He said Sunday he plans to announce in December or early January whether he will seek the nomination.

Kennedy's friends have represented him as anxious to enter various primary contests. They have criticized plans in some states to enter favorite son candidates. Kennedy himself said nothing Sunday about his own plans or hopes for primary contests.

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Aristotle Onassis' yacht carrying the wealthy Greek shipowner and opera star Maria Meneghini Callas dropped anchor Monday off a seaside resort near Athens.

The yacht arrived at Olyphada after a weekend trip from Venice. The estrangement of Miss Callas, 35, from her husband, Giovanni Battista Meneghini, 62, became known last week. Miss Callas, 55, have denied any romance.

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Large scale Communist troop movements were reported Monday between the North Viet Nam border and the northern Laos defense headquarters at Sam Neua.

MAY ACCEPT PLAN TO END ALGERIAN WAR

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
ALGIERS (AP)—The great majority of French army officers in Algeria apparently are ready to accept French President Charles de Gaulle's plan for ending the Algerian war whatever it may be. De Gaulle has secretly prepared a new approach to settling the costly nationalist rebellion. He is to disclose his plan in a nationwide radio and television broadcast Wednesday. Officially, all that is known is that it will "affirm the principle of self-determination" for the Algerians.

But two days before the expected announcement the hard core of the French army appears to be lined up solidly behind De Gaulle.

Accept Solution
De Gaulle is the only man who can solve the Algerian problem and we have all reason to believe his solution will be compatible with the nation's honor and interests," a staff officer said.

Highly placed French administration sources said some officers remain hostile to De Gaulle, but that their number and influence is not enough to steer the army into an anti-De Gaulle rebellion. De Gaulle's trusted friend, Gen. Maurice Challe, seems to be in complete control of the 400,000-man French force fighting the Algerian rebels, who seek complete independence.

FAMILY IS TERRORIZED BY GUNMAN

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A masked gunman forced his way into a Levittown home Monday, threatened to drown two small children in the bathtub and terrorized the family before fleeing with about $2,300 in cash and other valuables.

Police said that during the two-hour reign of terror, the gunman turned on the water in the bathtub and threatened to drown Hope Antonoff, 10, and her sister, Sandra, 9.

Officers said he also kicked Joanne Antonoff, 18, a freshman at Rider College, N. J., in the head and slugged her brother, Robert, 21, a junior at Rider, across the face with a blackjack.

Got Auto, Cash

The mother of the children, Mrs. Marie Antonoff, 37, said the man appeared at the front door and told her: "This is a holdup."

She described him as a white man, about 40 years old and 5 feet, 6 inches tall. She said he was wearing sunglasses and a bandana over his mouth.

He forced Mrs. Antonoff and her children into a master bedroom where he tied their hands. The

Those attending will take a nosebag supper and a beverage will be provided. Members interested in subscribing to "American Girl" should also tell the leaders; if five members subscribe, the magazine can be obtained at half price. The offer remains good until October 1. It has been decided that Scouts may purchase either a long or a short sleeve uniform this year, and there will be some second hand uniforms available in the community. SOVIETS HAVE PLAN ON LAOS

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union says the only way to deal with the trouble in Laos is through an international conference, with Red China taking part.

The Soviets in an official statement issued Monday night by Tass news agency, again repudiated the U. N. fact-finding mission sent to investigate the tiny Asian kingdom's charges of aggression against the Communists.

The Soviet statement warned the West that the Security Council's action might have "far-reaching consequences for peace and security in Indochina."

Cool Reception

The statement was timed with the arrival of the U. N. mission in Southeast Asia and Premier Nikita Khrushchev's takeoff for talks with President Eisenhower in Washington.

The Soviets demanded a conference to be "called without delay" by the countries that attended the 1954 Geneva conference which ended the French-Communist fighting in Indochina and brought independence to Laos. They were the United States, Britain, the Soviet Union, France, Red China, and the Indochinese states of free to the ball park.

Mrs. Donald Peterson, director, will install the newly elected officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion at the first fall meeting of the unit on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Legion Home, E. King St., Miss Marietta Weikert, Littlestown High School Senior, the unit's representative at Keystone Girls' Camp last June, will be present to tell of her camping experiences.

An Announcement of Interest to Everyone

BETTER MEALS BUILD BETTER FAMILIES

BEGINNING SEPTEMBER 14, THIS NEWSPAPER—and newspapers all over the country—will begin a concerted two-week drive to focus attention on one of the basic necessities of your life—food.

Food manufacturers, distributors and local retailers will be cooperating in this nationwide movement—identified by the symbol shown on this page—"Better Meals Build Better Families."

The desire of your daily newspaper and people in the food business is to emphasize the importance of the family meal as the traditional gathering place for the family. The family meal rather than meals on the run is not only more nourishing but it makes for a better, more cohesive family relationship. A closer family is a better family.

Your daily newspaper is spearheading this drive because the newspaper is the number one means of food communication. Food is news—and the newspaper delivers this news daily through its food pages and through the advertisements of retailers and manufacturers.

You will be reading all about the "Better Meals Build Better Families" campaign in the days to come. Look for announcements in the pages of your "Total Selling" medium—the daily newspaper.

SENATE GROUP OKAYS CHANGE IN SALES TAX; GOES TO FLOOR

HARRISBURG (AP) — A move to eliminate the 4 per cent sales tax on laundry and dry cleaning and put it on over-the-bar drinks and retail soft drinks has been approved by the Senate Finance Committee.

The Republican-controlled committee gave its approval to the package Monday night and sent it to the floor for possible passage this week.

Although GOP leaders have predicted they will have enough votes to push the package through the Senate, Republicans and Democrats still do not agree on the net amount of new tax the Commonwealth will receive.

See $20 Millions

The two political parties do agree that taxing consumer sales of alcoholic beverages will add some 20 million dollars to the state treasury for the biennium but they disagree on the other two levies.

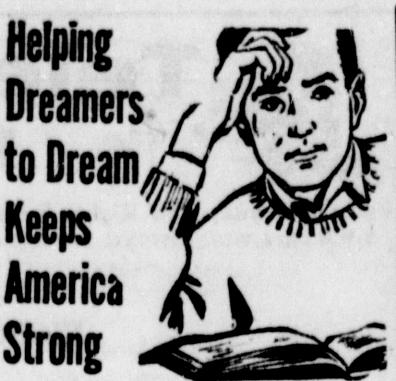

GOP leaders have estimated the switch of the tax on soft drinks from the distributor to the retail level would bring an additional million dollars. Democrats, however, declare that the change would result in a loss.

Gov. Lawrence told his news conference last week that such a change in collection of the soft drink tax would lose all revenue on sales of individual bottles.

Estimates Vary

When the pop is sold by the case, it would be taxable on a total price. Sold individually at 10 cents, each bottle would be tax-free since the sales tax is not collected on sales of less than 11 cents.

The Democratic administration

Our colleges and universities are the places our dreams are given direction. Ironically, today they face a crisis. Low salaries are driving many qualified teachers into other fields.

Many classrooms are overcrowded. And applications are expected to double by 1967. Won't you help the college of your choice now?

Published as a public service in cooperation with The Advertising Council.

also estimated that the exemption for laundry and dry cleaning would cost 16 millions.

Sens. Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster), Finance Committee chairman, estimated a price tag of eight to nine millions.

No Action Taken

The Senate took no action Monday on two levies which would raise the tax on bank shares from four mills to eight mills and extend the 14 mill utility tax to the gross receipts of gas companies. The two taxes are estimated to produce an additional 18.2 millions.

It also passed over a proposal to raise the hotel occupancy rate from 3½ to 4 per cent, an action estimated to bring in some $600,000.

Other Developments

Other legislative developments: OBSCENITY—The House sent to Gov. Lawrence legislation banning obscene movies or shows. The bill changes language of existing law to comply with a ruling by the U. S. Supreme Court that it was unconstitutional. The House voted 190-0 to agree to Senate changes in the measure reducing the amount of fine.

The House refused to agree to Senate amendments to a companion bill banning sale of obscene literature. The Senate changed the House-approved version to make a violation a misdemeanor instead of a felony.

SPORTS—The House adopted by a standing vote a resolution calling for investigation of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Assn.

The measure requires the Joint State Government Commission, research arm of the Legislature, to make the study. The move stems from failure by the PIAA to use basketball facilities at the State Farm Show Arena after the state spent $10,000 having them installed.

GOLD AND BLACK MOTIF

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP) — Five hundred gold and black saddle cloths for eligibles for the Oct. 31 Garden State Stakes have been mailed out by the track. The saddle cloths, each with "The Garden State 1959" embroidered on a corner, serve as a reminder that entries closed June 15.

ANGLER IS #9

PORLAND, Ore. (AP) — George Wyatt is Oregon's senior angler, reports the state game commission. At 99 he is just one year younger than the state. He and three other over 90 anglers have received Oregon fishing licenses this year.

NEW YORK (AP) — Howard Gould, 88, last surviving son of financier Jay Gould, died Monday after a long illness. Gould, who had inherited great wealth, lived and entertained lavishly.

some 250 couples free honeymoons to publicize an island he bought and called "Honeymoon Isle," died Monday. He bought the Gulf Coast island, then called "Hog Island," in 1939 for $25,000 and sold it in 1956 for $600,000.

If Red Rocket Hit Moon The Impact Was Noiseless

WASHINGTON (AP) — If those they're just lying—or standing—hammer-and-sickle pennants of the Soviet moon rocket are real flags, they're not waving on the moon—because there is no breeze on the airless moon.

But, as one top American astronomer put it to a reporter, "placing even a dead pennant on the moon is really something."

"I wish we had done it first ourselves," said Dr. Gerald Cleman of the U. S. Naval Observatory.

John M. Raymond, deputy legal adviser to the State Department, said the United States is taking the position that any rocket planting of a flag on the moon would not give the U.S.S.R. or anyone else a claim to rule over it.

However, he added, the United States as yet has "no views on how far you would have to go" to claim moon sovereignty.

The Soviets triumphantly said their moon rocket bore pennants emblazoned with the arms of the Soviet Union and an inscription "the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. September 1959."

But the Soviet announcement didn't make entirely clear whether the pennants were painted on the rocket's casing—or were regular flags.

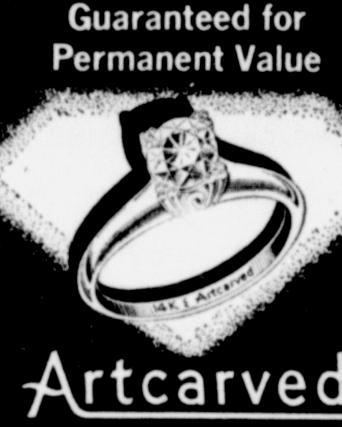

However, if they are real flags,

HAMBURGER IS KING IN HUGE KROC'S SYSTEM

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — America has gone mad over pizza pies, but in less than five years Ray Kroc has built up a 25-million-dollar business in an older U.S. food favorite — the hamburger.

"I put the hamburger on the assembly line," said Kroc, 56, president of a chain which now sells 100 million 15-cent hamburgers a year.

Kroc quit high school at 15 after a losing bout with algebra. At 16 he and Walt Disney were driving Red Cross ambulances.

Sales Manager

For 17 years, Kroc served as a sales manager for a paper cup firm, then became world distributor for a soda fountain multimix machine.

In 1954 Mack and Dick McDonald, owners of a unique self-service hamburger drive-in at San Bernardino, Calif., called him in, proposed he join them in establishing a nationwide chain.

"The idea put me on a dream cloud at the start," said Kroc, who later took over the chain when the McDonald brothers retired. "The restaurant industry has a high morality, but I never knew anyone who had failed in the hamburger field."

Drive-in Chain

Kroc launched only one new drive-in patio in 1955, which earned $158,000. Now the chain consists of 125 drive-ins, with 60 more under construction in 25 states, and will gross an estimated 25 million in 1959.

The system operates on a franchise basis. Kroc's organization picks the site, leases the building, and provides the know-how for 2.2 per cent of the gross. Each drive-in represents an investment of about $125,000, of which the individual operator puts up $29,000.

The drive-ins limit themselves to a 10-item low-cost menu to speed service. Mass buying cuts expenses. Customers can't eat on the premises. So there's no dish-washing.

No Juke Boxes

"We don't allow juke boxes, cigarette machines or phone booths — and we don't hire female help," he said.

"In picking a site we count the churches and schools in the area, rather than the traffic. We appeal to a family trade, not transients. We want to become a real part of the community."

Among the operators are retired doctors, dentists and Navy commanders, a former schoolteacher.

They take an intensive two-week business indoctrination by Kroc and his aides, then are handed the keys.

Unlimited yet by law of diminishing returns, Kroc says his spe-cacularly successful hamburger emporiums average a net of $40,000 on an annual gross of $200,000. The average customer's

Columnist Is Attracted By Beauty Of Scenery On Carlisle-Gettysburg Road

A columnist for the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, Gilbert Love, recently motored east along the Turnpike, into Carlisle and then into Gettysburg and came up with the following article:

One of the most interesting roads I have driven in a long time is Pennsylvania Route 34 between Carlisle and Gettysburg. It's only a 30-mile trip, but for a brief time it takes you into a land of long ago and far away.

The enchantment begins even before you get to Carlisle. If you come from the west on the Turnpike, you emerge suddenly into the Great Valley of Pennsylvania through the Blue Mountain Tunnel. From a distance the rich, rolling countryside is like a vast rural scene under a Christmas tree. A this season, it's green and tan and vivid with flowers.

"Old Country"

This is one scene that looks as good close-up as it does at a distance. As you leave the Turnpike at the Carlisle Interchange you pass large white stone houses and larger red brick barns.

This is old country. In Carlisle matter how you feel about Nikita Khrushchev—good or bad—here are some points to keep in mind as he bounces around the country.

Don't take his visit so seriously as to be disappointed if nothing comes of it. To Khrushchev this may be just a prestige and feeling-out expedition, with a free trip and look around on a Soviet expense account.

It is also possible he really wants to lessen tensions. He could, if he wished, lower the world's temperature by making concessions. If he did, he'd want some in return.

Eyes Surpassing U.S.

Why should he budge an inch? It's easy to think of a number of reasons which tie in together and from his viewpoint make good sense.

He's 65. He wants to see the Soviet Union surpass this country economically. He has said it will. Because years are short, it probably won't happen in his lifetime.

Right now the U.S.S.R. is throwing 40 per cent of its resources into military development. His dream of Soviet economic supremacy would come a lot closer to fulfillment if a bigger share of these resources went into home use.

Since Communists are convinced their system will own the earth eventually, they don't have to keep pushing so hard. They can wait.

Khrushchev has implied as much.
